RETURN AND REFUND POLICY

Raw Cold Call Playbook | Seller: Ryan Rozario | Effective November 12, 2026

1. All sales are final

Everything sold under Raw Cold Call Playbook is a digital product that is delivered instantly. Because of this, all sales are final. There are no refunds, returns or exchanges once a purchase is complete.

2. Try before you buy

A free sample of the playbook is available so you can see the format, tone and quality before you purchase. By buying, you confirm that you have had the chance to review what the product contains.

3. Trouble accessing your files

If you cannot access or open your files, message me within 7 days of purchase and I will help you fix it. This is technical support and does not change the all-sales-final policy.

4. Your legal rights

Nothing in this policy limits any rights you may have under the consumer protection laws of your country that cannot be excluded by agreement.

5. Disputes

If you have a problem with your purchase, please contact me first so I can try to resolve it before you start a dispute with your bank or card provider.

6. Contact

Message me through the support chat on the Raw Cold Call Playbook page on Whop, or on LinkedIn at linkedin.com/in/ryanrozariosales.
